VEW YORK DELEGATION DESERTS BUTLER AFTER FIRST BALLOT

arol all the Ohio delegates in the ANNA ANDERSON, National Convention the November Republican outlook in Ohio will be his nomination. In the mean time Mines is trailing along, with his little old fine vote occasionally doubted by some delegate who has ulterior or other motives.

The result of the Ohlo poll on the sixth ballot, showing a loss of four for Harding and corresponding gain of four for Wood, was a blow to the Senate Simon Legrees. Wood gained in Onlo on a bear Wood market and Harding lost on a bull Harding

On the seventh ballot Michigan knocked the Wood and Lowden forces cuckoo by going back in a hody to Johnson, after on the prevlous ballot having given 11 to Wood and 18 to Lowden.

The plans for pushing Harding were made fast night after the fruitless balloting of yesterday. The conference was held at Sen-

the Blackstony Hutel. Other Senators pastending were Lodge, Watson, Smoot, Curtis, McCormick, New, Wadsworth, Frelinghuysen, Spencer and Calder. Harding spent some time in the meeting? Johnson was at the hotel but not at the confer-

Federation Adopts Resolution Unanimously-Bitter Attack Made on G. O. P.

MONTREAL, June 12 -- A Congres ional investigation into alleged "unspeakable outrages" inflicted upon the mine workers by the "coal inferests" in West Virginia is demanded in a esolution unanimously adopted here to-day by the convention of the Amercan Federation of Labor.

Amid tremendous applause, the 'ederation to-day adopted a report condemning the Republican convention in Chicagofor "turning its back on labor" in adopting its platform.

During reading of the report, presented by Samuel Compers and Matthew Woll, President and Vice-President of the Federation, various sections of Republican planks criticised by the labor leaders were hissed, while their critics received applause.

The report was ordered printed and distributed to organized labor. It asserted that the labor declaration of the Republican platform "proposes an ndustrial enslavement and an abrogation of rights as precious as life tself," and that it denied the right to

According to W. Gibbes Whaley, counsel for Mrs. Blwell, the separation action was ended when Justice Newburger granted a motion ordering Mr. Blwell to pay the allowance indefinitely. This he did, Mr. Whaley.

From friends who know both Mr. and Mrs. Elwell it was learned to-day that the two were known in society as champion whist players. Mr. Elwell was called the champion whist player of the world; Mrs. Elwell was rated by society is the champion cacher of the world. Both were very ospular in society, not only of New York, but also in Newport and in England. Both withdrew fro social activities after the separation. Elweil for some years—even previous to the separation suit—nad been known as a favorite among women. He was a good looking man, withy and, it is said, was able to make considerable of an impression upon the femining mind.
